

Media Release

Minister chooses Crowley to launch ageing strategy

August 2014

NSW Minister for Ageing John Ajaka, Crowley Care Services CEO Michael Penhey and State Member for Ballina Don Page

The NSW Minister for Ageing John Ajaka chose Crowley Care Services to launch the regional ageing strategy.

The ageing strategy recognises that the Far North Coast has above average numbers of people aged over 65 years due to the fact that the appeal, beauty and lifestyle of the region attracts many retirees.

The Minister was keen to hear the views of Crowley residents and staff.

Ends